

Charter
of the Imaginary Historians' Society

Set forth February Twenty-Sixth in the year Two-thousand Eighteen by Sir Arthur W. Boblin, Arvin T. Bolouti, and Dr. Marviten Grouchers

Article I

The name of the organization shall be The Imaginary Historians' Society.

Article II

The Purpose of The Imaginary Historians' Society is to preserve from annihilation the documents, papers, letters, artifacts, relics, and records of the imaginary history.

Article III

The Imaginary Historians' Society is overseen by a self-perpetuating council of three. The council is to meet semiannually. The council's responsibilities cover all aspects of the Society, including appointing a Director, determining qualifications for membership, collection policies, publications, and financial matters. The Council shall publish irregularly an unabridged report of the Society and its operations.

Article IV

Membership to The Imaginary Historians' Society is granted at the Council's discretion to imaginary persons who apply.

Article V

The Director is an office appointed by the council whenever a vacancy occurs, by resignation, death, or removal from office. A unanimous vote among all three Councilmembers is needed to appoint or remove a Director.

The Director oversees the day-to-day operations of the Society.

Article VI

The Charter of The Imaginary Historians' Society can be amended by either two votes from the Council and the approval of the Director or three votes from the Council.

Article VII

The Imaginary Historians' Society shall maintain and operate an Archive of Important Evidences, which is to preserve papers, objects, and all material which is deemed permanently valuable as an aid to understanding the imaginary history, or is of interest to the Society.

Article VIII

The Imaginary Historians' Society shall operate an Imaginary Historians' Society Press, which is to publish articles, reprint primary sources, and in general support the imaginary history.

Article IX

The Imaginary Historians' Society shall operate a library, which is to collect books having to do with the imaginary history, or which are of interest to the Society.
